DEDICATION

As a means of thanking the Marlette Community School Board of Education for their hard work in our behalf, we dedicate this "Scribe" to them.

CLASS HISTORY

In early September of 1940 a new arrival made its appearance in the Marlette Community School as the class of "53". Only twenty-three of the class members who greeted that first dawn of knowledge made the grade. They are: Jay Brown, June Caroffino, Ken Chard, Ila Christensen, Leona Forbes, Wayne Ford, Don Fraleigh, Duane Gerstenberger, Bob Hodge, Pat Howard, Wayne Jickling, Jim Knight, Russell Kraft, Barbara Miller, Mary Lou Nicol, Martin O'Shea, Joann Robinson, Margaret Rudd, Donald Smith, Jeanne Sullivan, Lawrence Turner, Junior VanEtten, and Grace Ann Wood.

Little "53" grew by leaps and bounds until after an eighth grade trip to the Edison Institute, Greenfield Village, and a Tiger game, it was big enough to leap the threshold into high school. In that freshmen year under the watchful eyes of Jim Knight, President; Wayne Adam, Vice-President; Doris Swailes, Secretary; and Don Smith, Treasurer; "53" took its first faltering steps past the terrors of Algebra and through the fears of Biology. Some of "53's" first year was spent in futile attempts to escape the Initiation. It was then that "53" decided to wear always the class colors, blue and white, furthur ornamented by a red rose and live by the motto, "We learn not for school but for life."

A switch of helpers was in order as "53" entered it Sophomore year, Diane Oberle, President; Scott Ramsey, Vice-President; Luella Lamie, Secretary; and June Caroffino, Treasurer; helped "53" turn the initiation loose on the defenseless lower classmen. The Twirp Dance, an unusual type of dance, was "53's" first attempt at an all-high party.

A more mature "53", with Bob Hodge, President; Scott Ramsey, Vice-President; Mary Lou Nicol, Secretary; and Martin O'Shea, Treasurer;, embarked upon a trip through the adventure of its Junior year. "Professor How Could You," the Junior Play; the J-Hop, with its unusual under-sea decorations, and the Jr.-Sr. Banquet were the highlights of this part of "53's" life.

With Martin O'Shea leading the way and Scott Ramsey, Margaret Rudd, and Wayne Adam following close behind, an excited "53" entered into the adventures of that once-in-a-lifetime thrill--a Senior Year. The Senior play; the Senior Prom, a profitable enterprise; the Senior Tea, with all the finery; a fete by the Juniors at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet and the exciting Senior trip to New York led to the Class Day, Baccalaureate, and finally, Commencement where "53" in blue robes, received its passport to bigger and better things.
